

ANALYSIS OF FEEDBACK FROM THE PARENTS OF STUDENTS OF HEM CHANDRA DEV GOSWAMI COLLEGE, NITAIPUKHURI ON CURRICULUM TRANSACTION
ACDEMIC YEAR 2020-21

Prepared By

Internal Quality Assurance Cell
Hem Chandra Dev Goswami College, Nitaipukhuri, Sivasagar (Assam)
2021

ANALYSIS OF FEEDBACK FOR PARENTS

1.0 Introduction:

Parents are first teacher of children. The support of parents towards education of their children can alleviate the functioning of educational institution. Parents have the responsibility in holistic development of the students. Without their involvement, support, help and guidance in learning, the students get difficulty in advancement of education. The suggestions of parents towards improvement of education Therefore, feedback from parents of students are collected of Hem Chandra Devgoswami College is collected by IQAC of the college so that the administrative authority can take necessary steps for overall development depending on the responses.

2.0 Objectives of the study:

The objectives of the present study are stated below:

- To study the perception of parents of students pursuing Bachelor of Arts in Hem Chandra Dev Goswami College, Nitaipukhuri towards curricular, infrastructure, fee structure, relation of students with teachers and non-teaching staff.
- To analyze and assess the responses of parents of students pursuing Bachelor of Arts in Hem Chandra Dev Goswami College, Nitaipukhuri so that the administrative authority can take necessary steps for overall improvement of the college.

3.0 Methodology:

3.1 Method: In the study, survey method and descriptive method are used.

3.2 Sample of the study: In the study the feedback of 7 numbers of parents of students that are pursuing Bachelor of Arts during 2020-21 academic session are analyzed.

3.3 Tool of the study:

The data are collected from parents through survey conducted by IQAC, Hem Chandra Dev Goswami College, Nitaipukhuri. The survey consists of 5 questions. Each question has alternatives. The parents can choose the most appropriate one. Questions no. 5 is qualitative. The questionnaire is attached in Appendix I.

3.4 Analysis of the study: In the present study, percentage of response in terms of each questions are analyzed by using simple mathematical calculation.

4.0 Limitations of the study:

The limitations of the study are:

- The study covers only parents of students that are pursuing Bachelor of Arts in Hem Chandra Dev Goswami College, Nitaipukhuri.
- The study covers only parents of students that are pursuing Bachelor of Arts during 2020-21 academic session.

Coordinator/Convener
IQAC
HCDG College, Nitaipukhuri
Silasagar, Assam

5.0 Analysis of the responses from parents of HCDG College:

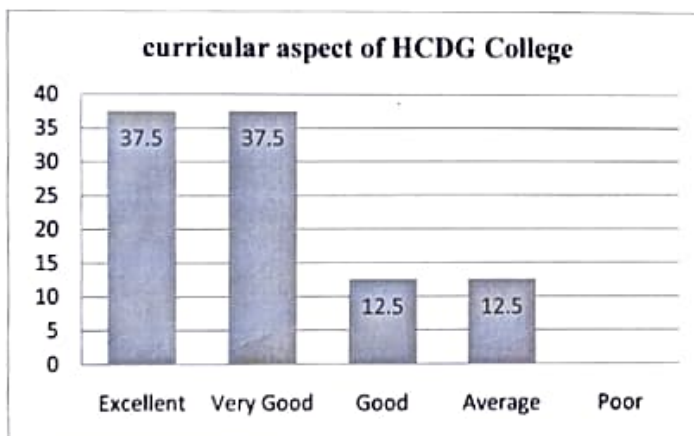

The parents are given to rate different aspects of education. All parents of the sample are cultivator by occupation.

5.1 Analysis on rating by parents on aspects of HCDG College:

The parents are given to rate on 7 aspects of the college viz. curricular, infrastructure, fee structure, teacher-student relation, non-teaching staff-student relation, satisfaction with son/daughter performance and overall rating of the college.

5.1.1 Curricular:

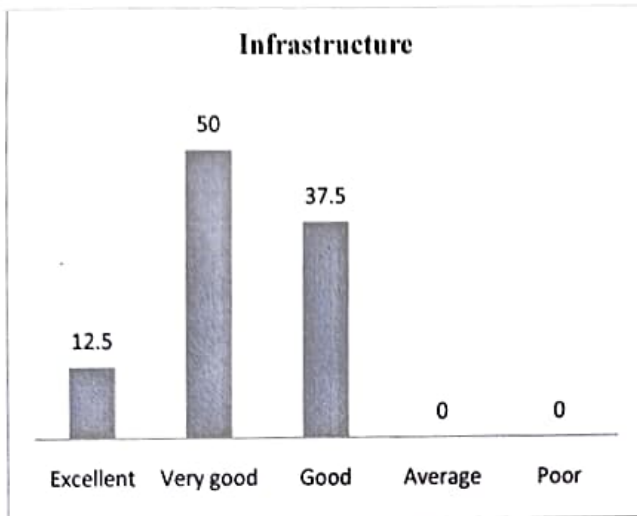

Curriculum plays the vital role in personality development of students. It has been noticing that 37.5% parents replied the curricular as Excellent, 37.5% parents replied it as Very good, 12.5% parents regard it as good and rest of the sampled parents i.e. 12.5% parents thought it was average for their son or daughter read in the college. It indicates that most of the parents are satisfied with existing curricula of B.A. programme of the college. The statistical data regarding the curriculum presently followed in the college are again showed graphically in the following diagram.

5.1.2 Infrastructure:

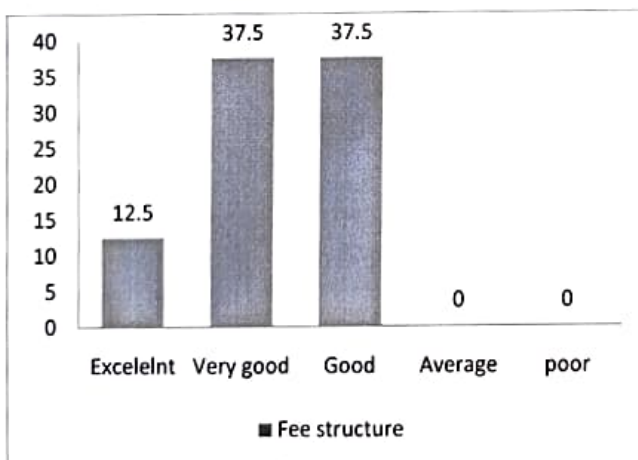

Infrastructure includes physical resources available in the educational institution. From the study, it was revealed that 12.5% parents found the infrastructure as excellent, 50% parents replied it as very good and 37.5% parents regard it as good for their son or daughter read in the college. It indicates that the facility of infrastructure in the college should be more enhanced. The statistical data regarding the infrastructure of the college are again showed graphically in the following diagram.

Signature

5.1.3 Fee structure:

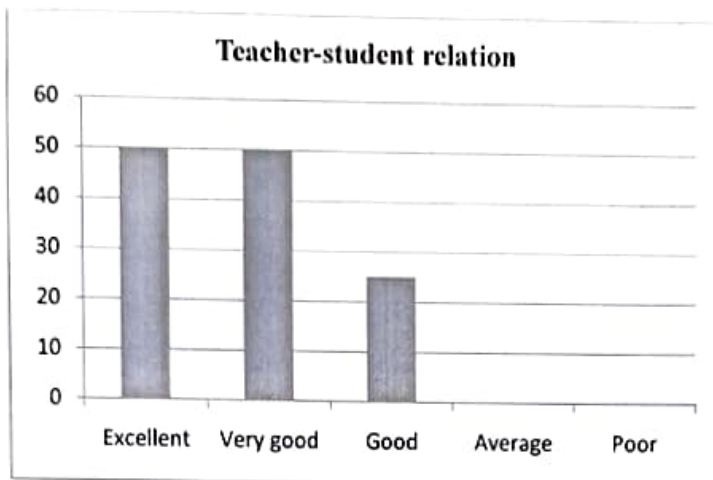

Presently, fees for admission are taken from the students belong to upper poverty level. From the study, it was revealed that 12.5% parents found the infrastructure as excellent, 37.5% parents replied it as very good and 37.5% parents regard it as good for their son or daughter read in the college. It indicates that the parents are satisfied with fee structure of the college. The statistical data regarding the infrastructure of the college are again showed graphically in the following diagram.

5.1.4 Teacher-student relation:

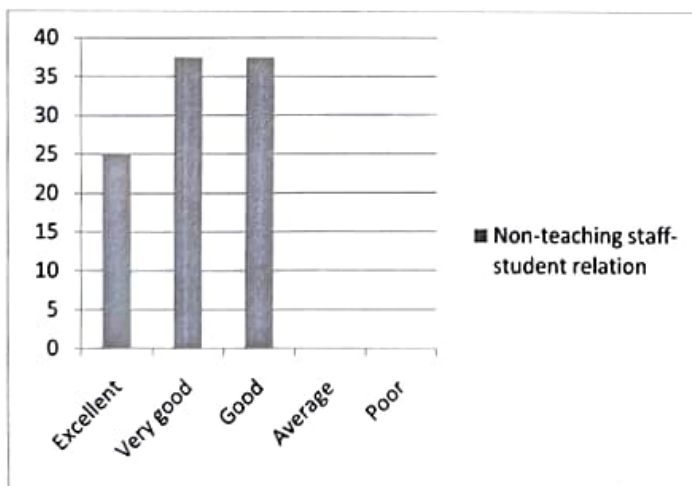

From the study, it was revealed that 50% parents found the infrastructure as excellent, 50% parents replied it as very good and 25% parents regard it as good for their son or daughter read in the college. It indicates that the parents are satisfied with relation of teachers with students in the college. The statistical data on teacher-student relation in the college are showed graphically below.

Handwritten signature

5.1.5 Non-teaching staff-student relation:

From the present study, regarding relation between non-teaching staff and students, it was found that 25% parents thought there is excellent relationship of non-teaching staff of the college with students, 37.5 % parents replied it as very good and 37.5 % parents regard it as good. It indicates that there is average relationship exist between non-teaching staff and students in the college. The data are showed below graphically:

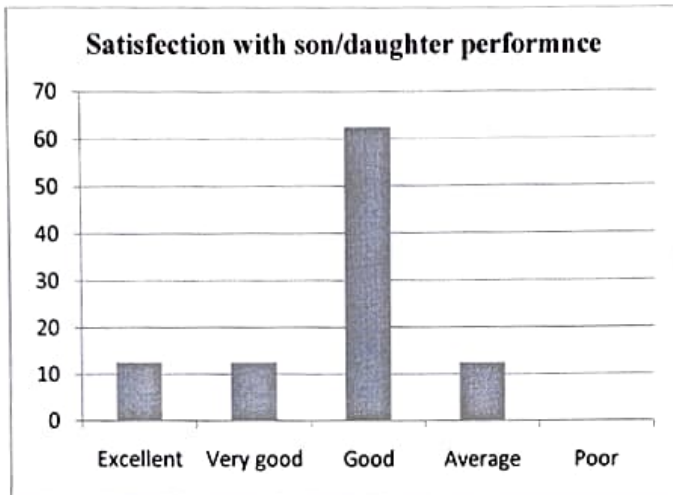

5.1.6 Satisfaction with son/daughter performance:

It has been noticing that 12.5% sampled parents are very satisfied with academic achievement and performance of their son or daughter read at HCDG College as they replied it as excellent, 12.5 % parents replied it as very good, 62.5 % parents regard it as good and 12.5% parents thought it as average. It indicates that there is average relationship exist between non-teaching staff and students in the college. The data are showed below graphically:

Handwritten signature

5.1.7 Overall rating of the college:

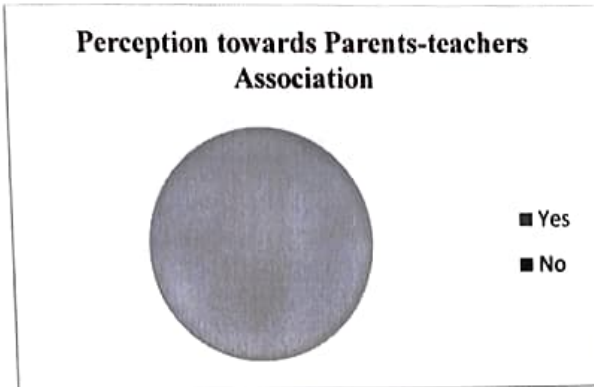

It has been noticing that 37.5% sampled parents are very satisfied with education of HCDG College as they replied it as excellent, 12.5 % parents replied it as very good, 12.5 % parents regard it as good and 12.5% parents thought it as average. It indicates that most of the parents are satisfied with the college. The data are showed below graphically:

5.2 Response on Perception of Parents towards effectiveness of Parents - Teachers Association:

SP. Dair...

100% of parents of selected sample for the study showed positive responses towards effectiveness of Parents-teachers Association. It was showed graphically in the diagram below:

5.3 Response on Child rearing practice of parents towards education of their children:

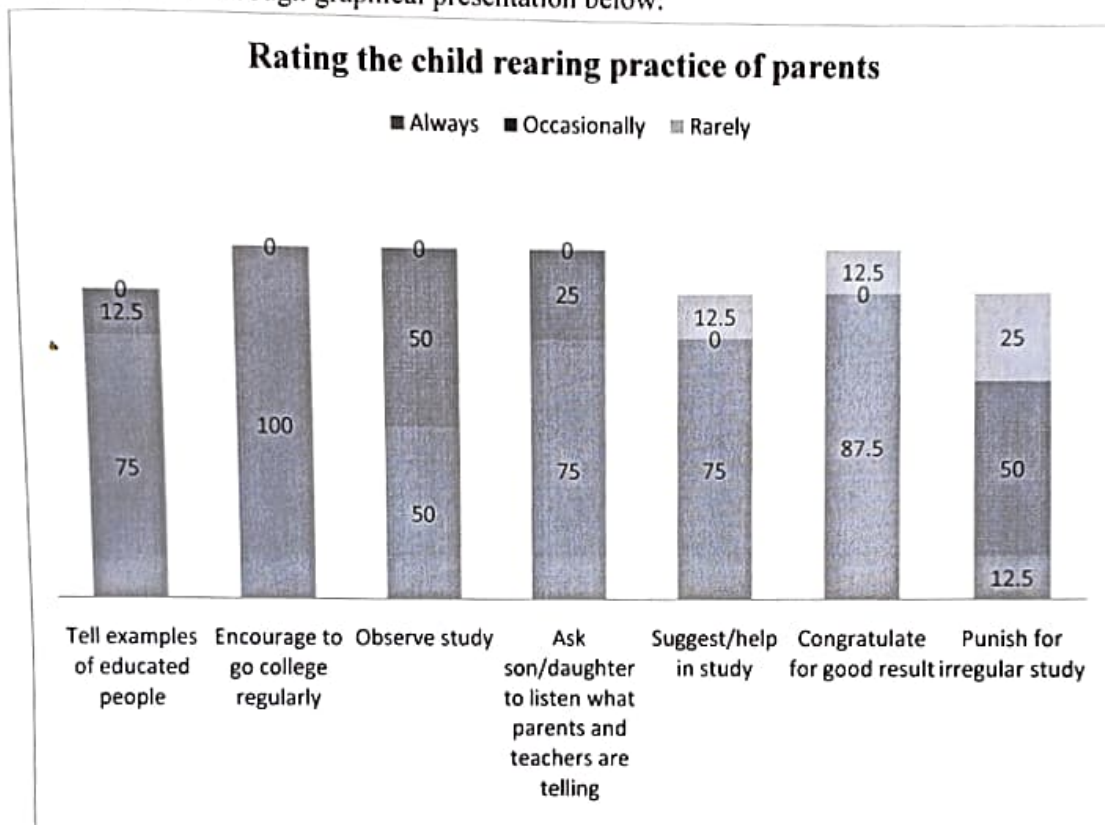

The parents are asked to rate on different aspects of child rearing practice towards education of their son or daughter. They are given to rate on aspects such as whether they give examples of those people who succeeded in life through education, whether they encourage their son/daughter to go to college regularly, whether they observe study of their son/daughter as father/ mother, whether they ask their son/daughter to listen what parents and teachers are telling them and act accordingly, whether they suggest /help them in study, whether they congratulate them when they make better performance in studies and is they punish or scold their son/daughter when they do not show interest in studies or their own works given to them. In the following, the results of the study are stated in the Table 1 which indicates percentage of responses of parents:

Table1: Child rearing practice of parents towards education of their son/daughter read at HCDG College

Criteria	Tell examples of educated people	Encourage to go college regularly	Observe study	Ask son/daughter to listen what parents and teachers are telling	Suggest/help in study	Congratulate for good result	Punish for irregular study
Always	75	100	50	75	75	87.5	12.5
Occasionally	12.5	0	50	25	0	0	50
Rarely	0	0	0	0	12.5	12.5	25
Never	12.5	0	0	0	12.5	0	12.5

Shikio

The data showed through graphical presentation below:

5.4 Response on selection of profession by students in future:

The view point of parents is taken on selection of his/her profession in future on four aspects. It was found that 50% teachers wished that their son/daughter will choose the occupation themselves, 25% parents expected that their son/daughter will choose their own profession, 25% parents wished to force their children to choose the occupation and no one thought that they are not concern with it.

5.5. Suggestions on improvement of the department and teaching-learning experience of the college:

The most important suggestions from parents are introduction of more Skill development programme so that their child can work in real life in future, use of technology in classroom teaching and provision of better canteen facility within the campus of the college.

6.0 Conclusion:

The parents can play the most significant role in overall development of children. In higher education, parents can observe and assist their child in education. The responses of parents regarding curriculum and other aspect of the college are found good. Therefore, it can be

Shikha

VII.	Overall rating of the college

2. Do you think functions of Parents-Teacher Association meet are effective and influential at the college? Yes No

3. Please, rate the following aspects practice by yourself:

Sl No	Aspects	Always	Occasionally	Rarely	Never
a)	Do you tell son/daughter the examples of those who succeeded in life through education?
b)	Do you encourage your son/daughter to go to college regularly?
c)	As father/mother, are you observe study of your son/Daughter?
d)	Do you ask son/daughter to listen what parents and teachers are telling them and act accordingly?
e)	Do you suggest /help them in study?
f)	Do you congratulate your son/daughter when they make better performance in studies?
g)	Do you either punish or scold your son/daughter when they do not show interest in studies or their own works given to them?

4. How would your son/daughter to select his/her profession in future?

a. As you will choose yourself

b. You expect son/daughter to choose your own profession

Shikha

c. Your son/daughter is forced to choose any

d. It is not your concern

5. Give your two suggestions on how to improve the department and teaching-learning experience of the college.

.....

.....

.....

.....

Shih