

Report on

Special class for semester students on 'How to write seminar paper'

Conducted by: Department of Education

Programme date: 08/10/2022

Venue: Departmental class room, H.C.D.G. College

Programme: A special class on 'How to write seminar paper' for semester students was organized by department of education on 8th October 2022. The students of Education department were present in the class. Dr. Leena Dutta, faculty of department of Education taught students about concept of seminar, its types, merits, steps of writing seminar paper, how to decide objectives of seminar paper, main theme and citation from articles and books. Students are given chance for open discussion to clarify their specific doubts and challenges related to seminar paper writing. The discussion proved immensely beneficial for the students. It provides students with opportunities to refine their skills and excel academic endeavour.

Photo of the programme:

